From: Michael Bishop
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 1:38pm
Subject: I do not agree with the proposed settlement

Under Definition U: The definition of Windows Operating System Product is too narrow.

It should include any OS that allows programs written to the Win32 API to run. The way it stands now, Microsoft could evade the provision by turning its efforts toward developing a different operating system or focusing on an operating system not covered that still supported the Win32 APIs.

_ michael

Michael Bishop
Oakland, CA